

Augusta Heritage Center of Davis & Elkins College

SCHOLARSHIP

PROGRAM

Application Guidelines

THANK YOU for your interest in the Augusta Heritage Center's Scholarship program. Scholarships are awarded for all full-time Augusta workshops except Folk Arts Week and Folk Arts for Kids classes.

The deadline for applying for all Augusta scholarships is:

Spring Dulcimer Week - January 1

Summer Session - April 1

October Old-Time Week - August 1

If you are interested in receiving a full or partial Scholarship, please complete the following:

Application Form (If you are unable to pay any portion of the tuition, please explain on the back of the application form).

Registration Form (Registration fees aren't necessary at the time of registration).

Letter of Recommendation from a mentor or teacher other than a parent. (Additional letters of recommendation will be accepted).

Additional Materials (optional)

Chaperone: All scholarship recipients under 18 at the beginning of the workshop are required to have an adult chaperone. Other rules apply - please refer to the Youth & Chaperone policy (www.augustaheritage.com/chaperone.html) for more details.

Housing: Scholarship awards do not include housing and meals.

Thank you, and best of luck!
